A truly magnificent luxury residence is a work of art...which the owners have the good fortune of calling "home." When brought to its highest level, it is a masterpiece, combining the vision of its creators with the beauty of its natural setting. In this case . . . the Manasquan River is the backdrop for the presentation known since its inception as: "Sui Generis"

Translated from Latin

. . . "Of its own kind . . . in a class by itself . . . unique"
